

LORENZO'S MAD LIBS

Fill-in the Story

Choose your own words to complete the story below. Be as silly, crazy, or unusual as you want! You may need to adjust your words into past tense or other ways to properly fit into the sentences.

One day in the middle of _____, Lorenzo the Bear and _____ the _____ went for a walk. They stopped at a _____ where they saw three _____.

"_____," Lorenzo said, "Have you ever seen such _____ animals before? But before he/she could answer one of them began to _____ towards them, making a _____ sound. Without a second thought, Lorenzo and _____ towards the _____ and asked, "What are you three up to?" One of the _____ answered.

"Just _____ for berries. But we are lost, and need to get home before we get in trouble!" "My name is Lorenzo and this is _____, maybe we can help. What are your names?" he asked. "Thank you! My name is _____ my brother's _____, and _____." We live in _____.

"I know where that is!" _____ said. They all left as _____ as they could, moving as fast as their _____ would let them. The time just _____ by! All of them became good friends, and before they knew it they were home. Lorenzo and _____ said goodbye and went home. They felt good, because they were able to help a few animals in need.

Word ideas & suggestions:

Nouns (people, places or things)

dollhouse playground pencil restaurant zoo squirrel Henry hippopotamus boy girl Alice Tom

Verb (action words or things you do)

dance wiggle bounce smile run speak throw away read dream

Adjectives (descriptive words)

squishy itty-bitty round flat heavy tall short terrible loud smelly lost